Norway, 7-Mechanic Falls, 2

With Gene Hebert, the Holy Cross hurler, in action for Norway, that gang of Fiddlers slipped one over on Mechanic

Falls at the fair grounds, Saturday afternoon.

Buts were severely the early chapter, but Norway fell into good luck in the fifth and caught four runs from an error or two and a brace of hits labeled for extra bases.

Mechanic Falls made several dangerous contacts and had runners along to third base. The lucky seventh was favorable for the Mechanics and three crossings were made when Shanahan drew a walk, Trumby doubled and both scored when Libby ripped a single in center field. Pratt's long drive into center for a sacrifice sent Libby over the pan. This rapped the lid on run getting for the visitors.

Norway made another advance in the same inning and harvested three runs.

Cole singled, stole second and crossed

when Libby ripped a single in center field. Homer Aldrich, who hit the course for his brother, scored on Allen's single. The plate and made his way to third on a

HARRISON Attention Given to Teeth

A recent dental survey by the Maine State Department of Health shows that the children of Harrison are giving more attention to the care of their teeth than they previously did. The percentage of clean mouths has increased from 22 per cent. to thirty-five per cent. since 1928, and there are fifteen per cent. who apparently have no decayed teeth.

While this is an improvement over previous conditions, there is still a great deal more that needs to be done. Approximately sixty-five per cent. of the children do not keep their mouths clean, and thereby expose themselves to the possibility of infectious diseases. Eighty-five per cent. have decayed teeth, which, in themselves, are a distinct menace to health, and may be the cause of heart trouble, malnutrition and systemic disturbances.

The facts that eighty per cent. of the diseases which attack children enter their bodies through the mouth, nose or throat, and that ninety per cent. of all deaths are due to systemic conditions which originate in the mouth, only emphasize our concern for these children.

The child, who is suffering with a toothache, or who is dragged down by the poisons of abscesses or decayed teeth cannot keep up with the healthy child, and is likely to drop behind his class, becoming a "repeater."

"This summer vacation," says Mr.
Munk, Superintendent of Schools, "affords a splendid opportunity for the parents of Harrison's children to attend to the needed dental care, and see that the children brush their teeth after each meal, actually chew fibrous and coarse foods to supply exercise for their teeth, and eat quantities of fruits, vegetables and milk. This applies not only to the children who were in school last year, but to those entering this fall for the first time as well."

Children's Sunday—Guests at Norton's—

Quiet Fourth.

Children's Sunday was Children's Sunday. Rev. Mr. Callaghan baptised five. Four children of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Sturges, while Mr. and Mrs. Orion Sturges, baptised the little Gloria. After the service, Mr. Callaghan gave a short talk on "The Value of Childhood," which was listened to by the children's concert, the children doing very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin and son, George, of Granby, Quebec, were the guests, recently, of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Norton. They came by automobile and enjoyed the scenery all the way. Mount-ains were as old friends, they having left some noble specimens where they came from.

Miss Polly Pitts, who was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garner, returned Monday to her home in Haverhill.

Fourth of July was an uneventful day but a pleasant one and looked festive with flags fluttering in the breeze. A number of children of large growth attended the circus in Portland and the constant snipping of firecrackers consoled those who remained. It was a comfortable Fourth, no rowdy canon on the hills to disturb the peacefulness of the day or night and no casualties. But the calm was broken about two in the morning when the peaceful slumbers of the whole village were roughly broken by the demonstration of the old adage, "Worth makes the man, want of it the fellow," by breaking the law, he gained access to the fire alarm and great was the commotion which followed.

Mrs. Ruth Wadsworth, aged 87 years, 8 months and 8 days, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leslie Warren, at Riverton, Monday, June 23. She was born in Hiram, the daughter of Silas and Hannah B. Durgin and was the last of a family of six children. In 1868 she was married to Arthur Wadsworth, who died Nov. 22, 1920.

The greater part of their life they lived in Hiram, later moving to Cornish, where Mrs. Wadsworth, with her daughter, Miss Nina Wadsworth, a teacher at Petersham, Mass., spent the summers. In all her years she was actively interested in all that savored of good and the many qualifications she possessed has built for her a lasting monument in the hearts of all who knew her. In her home she was a model of all that was noble and good. It was indeed a throne room where peace and contentment reigned supreme.

When sickness and death laid its paralyzing hand upon the home, her three daughters, Miss Nina Wadsworth, Cornish, Mrs. Jennie Chellis, Kezar Falls, and Mrs. Leslie G. Warren, Woodville, to whom she so fondly clung, watched over her with most tender care.

Mrs. Wadsworth was a member of the Order of Eastern Star at Cornish. Funeral services were held at her home in Cornish, Thursday, June 26. Rev. Cymbrid Hughes of Portland officiating. W. T. Norton of Kezar Falls sang very feelingly two selections, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "God Will Take Care of You." Interment was in the family lot at Riverside Cemetery, Cornish.

Miss Marion Ross of Camden is the guest of her aunt, Miss Bertha Ross.

Mrs. Carrie Jameson is visiting her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones at their summer home on Douglas Hill.

Mrs. Emma Wadsworth entertained the Ladies' Circle, Tuesday afternoon, twenty-five members being present. They passed a happy session, reading selections, talking and sampling the good things passed around by the hostess.

Miss Annabel Snow is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Fox.

Emma Fox, Vena Fox and Robert Fox enjoyed their vacation at the Fox treat to be together at home and with their father and mother.

Mrs. Lilla Gentiana, Mrs. Sumner Tencksbury and children are spending July and August at the Davis Farm.

Samuel Johnson has been with friends in Gorham the past week, returning home the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin and son, Douglas returned from Yarmouth, Monday and took luncheon with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Norton according to schedule, and then "on again, off again" to Granby, Quebec, where they were due Tuesday.
